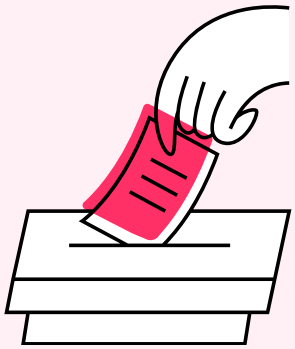
Overseas Constituencies

All British citizens living abroad can vote in General Elections.
We're asking for our own MP.

Numbers at the ballot



There are 13 constituencies where overseas voters could have changed the outocme

20 constituencies have more than 1000 overseas voters

Only around 3.5% of eligible overseas voters are registered

Unique issues

Brits abroad share more in common with each other than their former constituencies.

- 500,000 frozen pensions
- Difficulties accessing healthcare, social care and social security abroad
- £589 to visit home for some dual nationals
- Barriers to register to vote
- Difficulties with residency rights post-Brexit
- Over 18,000 bank accounts closed
- Still affected by UK decisions

Find out more: https://bit.ly/4ggaVRC

Overseas Constituencies

The international outlook

17 countries have overseas constituencies

Some have just 1 constituency for all overseas voters

Others have multiple – up to 18 in Tunisia

Our demands

We want to see:

A national commission on electoral reform that includes a dedicated channel on overseas voters

Labour learning from our sister parties in other countries

Legislation to establish overseas constituencies

Find out more: https://bit.ly/4ggaVRC